Erasmus days

Students reported their Erasmus experience in the presence of the school director and the other students

The students took part in some plays, performing in scenes inspired by the world of literature.

Final Ceremony

On the last day the students received certificates of participation and then there was a buffet, with dishes from different cultures as a symbol of unity and exchange

Meeting with the author

Meeting with the Swiss author Sara Earine, author of the fantasy book "the white Tristan/ il bianco Tristano"

The background features a large, soft, orange watercolor wash in the center. In the top-left and bottom-right corners, there are clusters of small, overlapping brushstrokes in muted orange, sage green, and dusty rose colors. The overall style is soft, artistic, and hand-drawn.
